

WALI TAYLOR

The plume of condensate from Tyseley Energy from Waste can normally be seen from as far away as the Lickey Hills some twelve miles away, except it has been broken for the last month. When I last visited the smell was horrendous and I felt for those working there.

© Wali Taylor

12th August 2023