

PAUL BARTLETT

I chose raking winter sunlight when many shops were closed for greater visual exposure of paved pathways and dramatically lit people abutting ever present traffic flow. Identifiable directional quality and larger truths along the pathway are informed by street and traffic signs, shop & business names, plaques, murals, digital display, posters etc, as listed in the numbered photographs.

1. 'Welcome to Kings Heath'. Karma Centre.
2. Live music. The Station. Cask ales.
3. Belleza. Burger & Sauce. Shoppers Pay & Display. Linens 'N' Things. Loco Lounge.
4. 'Welcome to Kings Heath' (mural). 'Is money on your mind now more than ever ?' (poster). Cosy Cafe. Better ingredients. Better Pizza. Humps for 250 yards. Papa Johns. Turkish. Except cycles (traffic sign). 'Is your food business ready for the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games ?' 'Get set for the games 28 July - 8 Aug' (out of date poster).
5. Costa. Poundland. Subway.
6. Heathfield Rd. Cash converters. Betfred. Sue Ryder. 'Cost-of-living crisis appeal: My children won't sleep. They are too cold and hungry' (digital display).
7. Kingsfield Road. Savers. Fried Chicken. Halifax. 50E Maypole every 4 mins. 35 & 46 bus stop High St Institute Rd.
8. Betfred. Sue Ryder. Boots. Peacocks.
9. Smiley sun symbol. Holland & Barrett. Costa. Beds, sofas rugs furniture. Wilko. Spring clean!
10. Tiger. Care Staff Required. Gem Aura. Pdsa help a vet help a pet. HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT...